

ASDS RESIDENT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

ASDS ANNUAL MEETING, October 3-6, 2013
Hyatt Regency Chicago; Chicago, IL
asds.net/annualmeeting

Residents, apply now for your scholarship to attend the ASDS Annual Meeting, Oct. 3-6, 2013 in Chicago. The ASDS Annual Meeting is the only meeting you can attend where you learn about the full spectrum of dermatology procedures - from general, reconstructive and Mohs to advanced cosmetic procedures.

ASDS Scholarships of $750 will be awarded to 200 dermatology resident applicants. Awards must be applied towards direct costs of attending the ASDS Annual Meeting including registration fees, hotel, airfare, and incidentals costs (cab, parking and/or meal expenses). To be reimbursed, receipts must be submitted to ASDS by 12/13/13. Applicants will be notified by 8/30/13 of their status. Eligibility: Any dermatology resident in training or who has graduated from a program in June 2013.

- Core Curriculum in Cosmetic Dermatologic Surgery Track
- Reconstructive Surgery Challenge Track
- Hands-on workshop on Tumor Excision/Wound Repair and Injectables Techniques, Advanced Suturing Techniques
- Three-hour Boot Camp lets you learn or review the basics of lasers, fillers, neuromodulators and chemical peels.
- ASDS Unplugged session, Oct. 2, where experts will discuss pearls and answer questions
- Practice management sessions on mobile apps, the patient experience, office operations and staffing issues.
- A resident hospitality suite and networking dinner defray your costs while helping you make connections.
