

A new page is turned for global Dermatologic
Surgery teaching with the
*ASDS/ISDS International Traveling Mentorship Program

The American Society for Dermatologic Surgery and the International Society for Dermatologic Surgery are pleased to announce the International Traveling Mentorship Program established through the Lawrence Field, MD International Dermatologic Surgery Educational Exchange Fund in order to enhance the exchange of information and body of knowledge of dermatologic surgery between the US and International community of dermatologic surgeons. This important new program is a collaborative effort between the ASDS and ISDS.

The below represents an interest data gathering form for this program

Name: _____ Email: _____
Institution/Affiliation: _____ Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
Phone: _____ Facsimile: _____
Please check if member of ASDS: _____ Please check if member of ISDS: _____
Area of Dermatologic Surgery Learning Interest/Expertise: _____

I am interested in the Traveling Mentorship Program as follows:

Serving as a Traveling Mentor

I am interested in visiting the following country/institution as a visiting professor: _____

The intended outcome for my visit would be to: _____

I should be considered as a Traveling Mentor based on the following training, experience, positions, and/or academic teaching appointments: _____

General length and date(s) of visit (2011): _____

Hosting a Traveling Mentor

I am interested in a Traveling Mentor to share his/her skills and knowledge in the following area (s) of expertise which is/are needed/required in my community: _____

General length of ability to host (2011): _____

Please submit the completed application by fax to Shonnie Shelton at the ASDS Executive Office at 847-956-0999 or by email to sshelton@asds.net.

