PRE-CONFERENCE LEARNING

PHOENIX, AZ
ASDS ANNUAL MEETING
OCT. 11-14, 2018

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 10*

Make the most of your time at the ASDS Annual Meeting by arriving early to master specific techniques with pearls from experts. Start with a hands-on workshop of choice for the day, and finish with ASDS Unplugged – a lively, interactive discussion of key dermatologic surgery topics over a light dinner with your peers.

Arrive early to attend these sessions. Register today!

8:30 A.M. – 4:30 P.M.
Hands-on Workshop:
Superficial to Deep Chemical Peels
Co-directors: Harold J. Brody, MD, and Peter P. Rullan, MD

This exclusive workshop will focus on the latest innovations and uses of superficial to deep chemical peels for therapeutic and aesthetic indications across all skin types. Registration is limited to 12 participants and includes transportation to the meeting venue and a light breakfast and lunch. Recommended for veteran and early career only; residents/post-residency trainees will be waitlisted. $1,499

9 A.M. – 5 P.M.
Facial Cosmetic Surgery Workshop
and Hands-on Cadaver Lab MOC
Co-directors: Hayes B. Gladstone, MD, and Greg S. Morganroth, MD

This advanced hands-on workshop offers an in-depth overview of anatomy and hands-on experience in facial cosmetic surgery using cadaveric specimens. Learn lifting procedures for the eyes, brow and face, as well as an overview of complementary non-surgical rejuvenation techniques. Space is limited. $1,199

6 – 9 P.M.
ASDS Unplugged –
Straight Talk about Devices and More
Moderator: Vic A. Narurkar, MD

This evening pre-conference has become one of the most popular sessions at the ASDS Annual Meeting. Enjoy a light dinner, networking and "Straight Talk" from ASDS experts as they share tips and insights on the latest techniques and related controversies in threads, fillers and neuromodulators, energy-based devices, combinations vs. monotherapy, body contouring and the future of dermatology in the world of private equity, pay-to-play and social media. This is a no-holds barred session – bring your provocative questions! $99 (Guests $109)

*Advance registration required.
