Description:

Susan H. Weinkle, M.D. is board-certified in dermatology. She is a Fellow of the American College of Mohs Surgery and a Diplomat of the American Board of Dermatology. Dr Weinkle graduated summa cum laude from the University of Florida in 1974 and completed her residency in dermatology at Stanford University Medical Center in 1982, where she held the position of Chief Resident. Dr Weinkle has been in solo private practice since 1984, specializing in Mohs Micrographic Surgery and Cosmetic Dermatology. She has held academic appointments at Stanford University Hospital, the University of California Irvine Medical Center and most recently at the University of South Florida. Dr Weinkle is affiliated with numerous professional societies. She has served on the board of directors of the American Academy of Dermatology and the board of directors of the American Society of Dermatologic surgery and is past President of the ASDS. She has also served as President of the Women’s Dermatologic Society and has received the Rose Hirschler Award. She has received the ASDS President’s Award, three times. Recently she was elected Treasurer of the Florida Society of Dermatologic Surgery.

Dr Weinkle is medical editor for Drugs in Dermatology and is on the editorial board of Practical Dermatology and Cosmetic Dermatology. She has published numerous articles on skin carcinoma, surgical techniques and cosmetic therapies. She frequently lectures on behalf of the American Academy and other leading dermatology societies, both nationally and internationally. She has been voted one of the “Best Doctors” for the past 16 years. Dr Weinkle is passionate about all aspects of dermatology: mentoring, scientific innovation and building enduring relationships within the dermatology community. She lives in Bradenton, FL with her husband, an ophthalmologist. Her daughter, Allison, is to begin dermatology residency at the University of South Florida and her son, Justin, works in finance in New York City.
